

Yellow warning
Snow & Ice

Between
01:00 Tue 14 Jan 2020 and
13:00 Tue 14 Jan 2020

Icy patches and wintry showers may lead to some travel disruption.

What to expect

- Probably some icy patches on some untreated roads, pavements and cycle paths
- Some injuries from slips and falls on icy surfaces
- Some roads and railways likely to be affected with longer journey times by road, bus and train services

Further details

Icy patches are likely to develop on Monday night and into Tuesday morning as blustery showers fall on cold surfaces, especially untreated roads and pavements. In addition, above 200 metres elevation, showers will fall as snow at times and above 400 metres there will be occasional heavy snow showers, bringing perhaps 2 to 6 cm, as well as temporary blizzard conditions. Snow showers will become confined northwest of the Great Glen by the end of the morning.

✓ Medium likelihood of low impacts
